

Chapman University

Chapman University Digital Commons

Series 1. Correspondence from George Tudor

George V. Tudor Second World War
Correspondence Collection

12-19-1943

1943-12-19, George to Family

George V. Tudor

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/gvtudor_correspondence_from

Recommended Citation

Tudor, George V., "1943-12-19, George to Family" (1943). Series 1. Correspondence from George Tudor. 112.

https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/gvtudor_correspondence_from/112

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the George V. Tudor Second World War Correspondence Collection at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Series 1. Correspondence from George Tudor by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

1943-12-19, George to Family

Keywords

1943-12-19, 8:30 PM

Identifier

2015-083-w-r_Tudor_WWII_1943-12-19

Lt. J. V. Tudor, U.S.M.C.
Co. D. 1st Btn - 22nd Marines
96 Fleet Post Office
San Francisco, Calif.

Mrs Mary Lavery
5914 So Green Street
Chicago 11, Illinois

Dec. 19, 1943

8:30 P.M.

Dear Sis;

Received your package of Oct 12th today. It made me feel rather disappointed that the package was delayed so long. The Xmas cards you sent were very nice but its too late to send them now. Nevertheless I really appreciate your sending them.

The package was very nice. The ~~were~~ swell in fact I'm wearing a pair of them now. About the skirt you sent its a little ironical getting that here. The pin-ups were all that you said they would be and a little more too. All in all it was gratifying to finally receive it. The sashes you sent added the final touch to a very nice package.

I am feeling fine and busier than I have ever been before. I don't mind it tho because time is really flying by for me. Xmas seemed so far away and now in a few days it will be here. It makes me feel such knowing that you folks at home would like me to be there for Xmas. Knowing that it will be quite awhile before Return is what makes it hard.

Whenever you mention the children I feel rather choked up inside. You know since I left home I have had no outlet for the sentiment in my heart. I'm saving it for them and when I get home I'll spoil the two darlings as if they were my own.

Hope that everything at home is going along all right. Sorry to hear about the trouble you are having with your hands. Sincerely hope this letter finds you in the best of health once again. Couldn't see much of your coat in the picture but from what I could see it looked pretty nice. Tell me, what is the baby expect doing these days.

I'll repeat once more, please don't worry about not getting my mail regular. It's something that can't be helped and it would make me feel much better knowing that you folks at home weren't worried. God Bless the fire of you

Sincerely George V. Tudor Love
George